ATTENTION

Clubs, Committee and Members,

QLACCA Field Trip for 2023

The QLACCA field trip for 2023 will be run as a tag along weekend to Chinchilla.

The Mitchelton Club has kindly helped organised this weekend to achieve a get together and social weekend with the Club members from the Chinchilla Club.

What is in Place so far:-

Week end16-17 September 2023
Venue.....Chinchilla petrified wood
Program.....Saturday 9am meet at tourist Information Centre Chinchilla
Saturday night Aussie feed & campfire at Chinchilla Club Members home
Sunday morning tea at Chinchilla Gem Club Rooms
Possibly.....Sunday lunch at Miles and going to the Museum to see the Norman Donpon
Display (there is an entry fee for this)
Sunday afternoon -leave for home

At this stage you should not need a fossicking license as you will be covered by QLACCA.

There is a $5 fee for fossicking at Bells Field.

Saturday night Aussie feed will be free but need to know number PLEASE

September is also school holiday time so it would be best to book early....here are some listings of accommodation, but there are plenty more please check the internet.
